NOTES

1. The application must be signed in the space provided, by (a) the person owning the business or (b) in the case of a partnership firm by the manager or (c) in the case of a body corporate (e.g. Statutory Company, Limited Liability Company, etc) by a person duly authorized for the purpose by the body corporate. In all cases, the status of the signatory must be entered below the signature. If not typed, names (other than signatures) must be in BLOCK CAPITALS.
2. If there is insufficient space for any answer on the printed form, a plain continuation sheet of the same size should be used. It should be attached securely to the printed form. Entries on the continuation sheet must be numbered to correspond with the sections on the printed form to which they relate.
3. A separate application must be made for each base of operation.
4. If the facilities which it is proposed to provide are not the same for all the vehicles included in the application the replies to questions 7(a) and (b) should be entered on the continuation sheet. The vehicles to which the relative facilities apply should be indicated by quoting the registration marks.
5. Under the Act, a motor vehicle cannot be effectively specified in more than one licence at a time.
6. The answers to the question "type" must include particulars of the type of body of each vehicle or trailer, e.g. flat lorry, van, tanker, tipper, articulated vehicle, etc.
7. "Unladen weight" means, for a motor vehicle, the unladen weight shown in the registration book, and for a trailer the weight recorded by a weighbridge. If the vehicle(s) to which the application relates is/are not yet in the possession of the application, Question 10 should be answered instead of Question 9.

WARNING

If any person for the purpose of obtaining the grant of a licence to himself or any other person, of the variation of a licence, or for the purpose of preventing the grant or variation of any licence, or of procuring the imposition of any condition or limitation in relation to a licence, knowingly makes any false statement, he shall be guilty of an offence and be liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months.
